Against Nazi Orders Italian Soldiers Prevent British, U. S. Nationals Being Sent Into Germany

BERNE, Switzerland, April 6.—(AP)—Italians armed with machine-guns opposed Nazi orders in a former unoccupied zone in France now controlled by the Italians and through their intervention prevented the transfer to Germany of 100 British and United States citizens, a frontier dispatch to the Gazette de L'Ausanne said today.

Early Bird

On March 28 it was reported here that French police, in company with "Nazi" demands, rounded up about 3,600 British and American citizens, including women, the former Vichy-controlled part of France.

Today's dispatch to the Gazette de L'Ausanne said that the French police, who were gathered at Grenoble, where they were to be put on a train for Lyon, the first of the trip to Germany.

ITALIANS INTERVIEW

The L'Ausanne newspaper said that Italian officers interviewed the French police in the territory they occupied in the British and American mobile guards to withdraw. It was reported that the British and American were held a few hours in barracks and then were told by the Italian officers that they were to go home. Since then there have been no arrests of British or American citizens in the area occupied by the Italians, the dispatch added.

A Greek incident was confirmed by a traveller who witnessed it. He said the Italians, armed with machine-guns, compelled the mobile guards to surrender the British and American citizens to the Germans.

Elsewhere in the unoccupied zone it was reported that all citizens of the United States and Great Britain were arrested and sent to German-occupied territory with machine-guns, compelled the mobile guards to surrender the British and American citizens to the Germans.

p.m. roll call, a search was made of the rooms in the prison camp where Schmidt was found.

He had "skillfully managed to disguise his appearance either by plastic surgery or some form of facial massage," Col. Ellwood said. "There were thousands of soldiers where he might have hidden," the commandant said. "He probably hid in a different place every day."

CHANGED HIS CHIN
"He made a long pointed chin with his own skin," Col. Ellwood said. "We don't know how it was done, but it was apparently done skillfully with a knife."

Schmidt may have done the plastic surgery or massage himself, Col. Ellwood said, but his chin, he said, would be a hard job to do. He had suggested to us that he had had it done by a German, but he said he did not know if that was true. Col. Ellwood said.

A sufficient tally of reported escapes by prisoners of war in Canada totals 104, including 100 from the United States, Col. Ellwood said. The exception being Baron von Werra, who escaped from a prison train at Santa Fe, N.M., made his way to the United States and then to Persia and back to Germany. He has subsequently been reported killed, although four escaped prisoners were lately still residing in Persia.

Hopes of Accord Between French Factions Fade

By H. O. THOMPSON

Exclusive to the Edmonton Bulletin

WASHINGTON, April 8.

Hopes of an early agreement between opposing French factions continued today, with word from London that the conference between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud, which was expected to take place today, has been postponed indefinitely.

Persons here with inside knowledge of what has been transpiring said there now appeared to be little hope that the fundamental differences between de Gaulle and Giraud could ever be adjusted satisfactorily.

De Gaulle it was said has presented impossible proposals as his terms for cooperating with the North African regime headed by Giraud. De Gaulle, according to this information, wants his fighting French movement, joined at London, to be recognized as the sole authority for the entire French fight against the Axis.

ALTHOUGH the actual organization of the Edmonton Baseball League has been deferred for a week, there would appear to be no doubt but that the game is headed for a big play here during the coming season.

Four teams are definitely in the field—Aircraft Royal, Arrows, Dodgers and U.S. Army, the latter applying having been accepted at a meeting held at the Arrows headquarters. It is understood that both Bechtel Price Callaghan and Kansas City Bridge are contemplating making application and it was accordingly decided to extend the time limit until next Monday, April 10, when the exact composition of the circuit will be determined.

It is however quite evident judging by the attendance at the preliminary meeting that the prospects are exceedingly bright and that more interest in baseball is being displayed than for many years.

LAST YEAR'S CLUBS BACK
DURING the 1942 season the senior league consisted of the following clubs: Aircraft Royal, Arrows and Dodgers. The latter two made the playoffs and the Arrows won the title by winning four games in the best-of-five series. Dodgers won two and one ended in a tie.

All three of these clubs were represented at Monday's meeting and each expects to be functioning again this coming season. Capt. Frank Wright, who presented the U.S. Army application.

No decision was reached as to the number of games to be played each week this season, this being left in abeyance pending definite knowledge as to the exact composition of the league. Last year's schedule called for only two

Quebec's hockey league champions, their third triumph in the best-of-five game.

Bingo Kampanan, erstwhile Toronto Maple Leaf, was the other Ottawa marksmen. Ernie Dickens, in the first period, and Wally Whitely, in the second, scored for the Commandos.

Shibley moved Commandos to the front early in the last period and scored the game-winning goal with two more minutes to play.

Edgar, Dickens and Dickens were serving penalties.

R.C.A.F. two men shot, faked in the face of a furious Ottawa goalie, the attack. Bush had more and a 16-minute misconduct penalty for charging. He swung at referee.

It seems almost impossible to keep Earl Seibert, Chicago Black Hawks, out of a defence berth on the smallest all-star team. The big fellow has played in the N.H.L. since 1926 and to the New York Rangers two years later. He joined Chicago during the 1935-36 season.

Supply Punch

OTTAWA, April 6.—(CP)—Two former New York Rangers, Earl Shibley and Neil Colville, set the pace as Ottawa Commandos defeated Toronto R.C.A.F. 5-2 here last night to move into the Eastern Canada Allan Cup senior final.

Shibley got three goals, and Neil Colville finished in all of them, besides adding a fourth himself to give Commandos.

Quebec's hockey league champions, their third triumph in the best-of-five game.

Bingo Kampanan, erstwhile Toronto Maple Leaf, was the other Ottawa marksmen. Ernie Dickens, in the first period, and Wally Whitely, in the second, scored for the Commandos.

Shibley moved Commandos to the front early in the last period and scored the game-winning goal with two more minutes to play.

Edgar, Dickens and Dickens were serving penalties.

R.C.A.F. two men shot, faked in the face of a furious Ottawa goalie, the attack. Bush had more and a 16-minute misconduct penalty for charging. He swung at referee.

It seems almost impossible to keep Earl Seibert, Chicago Black Hawks, out of a defence berth on the smallest all-star team. The big fellow has played in the N.H.L. since 1926 and to the New York Rangers two years later. He joined Chicago during the 1935-36 season.

Clark-Anderson Nuptials Held Central Church

Central United church was ranged with spring flowers, ferns and potted plants on the altar to form a background for the wedding of Miss Catherine Louise Anderson, elder daughter of Miss F. Anderson and the late Charles F. Anderson and William Paul Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clark, all of Edmonton. The Rev. A. F. Marsh officiated.

Frank Anderson gave his bride, in marriage. She wore a long length gown of frost white sheer, fashioned with high neckline, long sleeves, and full skirt. A panel of lace ornamented the front bodice. To the gathered waist, her veil was full length, and embroidered, held in place by a wreath of roses. Her only piece of jewelry was a gold, amethyst and pearl pendant, which her mother wore 25 years ago on her wedding day. A bouquet of buttonhole roses completed the bride's ensemble.

Miss Nellie Norrie was maid-of-honour and her sister, the bride's Miss Margaret Anderson was bridesmaid. They were dressed alike, the former in pink sheer and the latter in blue sheer. Their dresses were styled with square necklines, long full sleeves and gathered skirts. Both girls wore chapel veils held in place by a pinned ribbon tails to match their frocks, and both carried bouquets of white flowers.

Best man was L. E. Priddy, and ushers were R. F. Feunene, P. C. Morris and W. H. Holt. A reception was held for two guests at the 1410 S. 14th. The reception table set with a lace cloth, was centered by a three tiered wedding cake resting on a stand of white and silver. Tall vases of sweet peas completed the arrangement.

Miss Anderson chose a black and white sheer redingote, with black and white silk velvet trim, and shoes of the darker shade, and a ring of a diamond and pearl. Mrs. Clark wore a powder blue jacket dress, with beige accessories and corsage of roses.

Japs, Germans, Italians Are on Receiving End

Pictures Show Our Enemies Are Being Pounded

Japs Lose Ship in Dodging Fight

While circling frantically to avoid the deadly aim of U.S. bombardiers, this Japanese ship in the Bismarck Sea was hit squarely by one of several bombs which bracketed her course. The wake of the dodging vessel is clearly seen in this dramatic aerial photo.

Nazis March East in Russia—As Prisoners

In an attitude reminiscent of a vanquished Napoleon, German General von Daniel (second from right) is shown staking across the snow after the surrender of Hitler's Sixth Army at Stalingrad. A prisoner now, he gave no attention to the dead German in the foreground or to remnants of his shattered division who walked behind.

Italians Work in Bomb Rubble

Such devastating raids have been made by the R.A.F. on Italian cities that workmen are drafted from inland points to carry on the job of demolition and repair. This photo, received from a neutral source, shows laborers in a ruined street on Italy's Riviera.

On the Ball

It's a Look. That's the name of this strapless, sleeveless bathing suit worn by Lucille Ball as her answer to clothes conservation.

Ahhhh!

Frances Gifford is the name, fellows, and you can readily see why she's been selected the movies' newest saring girl.

Bright Smile for Dark Alaska

The wan Arctic sun can hide away all it wants to as long as there's a smile around as bright as Marjorie Reynolds', think U.S. soldiers stationed at the far northern rampart. The screen actress is pictured causing a general, neck-craning "Eyes Right!" as she passes by a line of doughboys going on duty.

Snow Maid

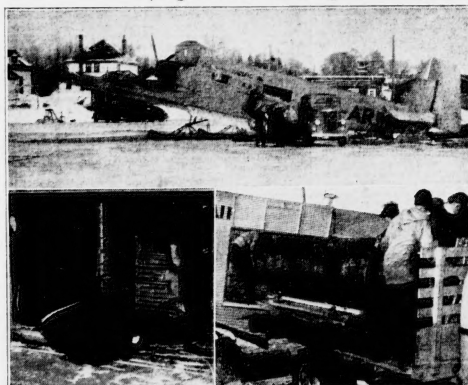

White and navy blue, always a smart combination, are combined in the smart ski suit modeled by Julie Bishop, featured by Warner Bros. in "The Hard Way." Navy blue down hill pants are topped with a white water-repellent jacket with matching visored cap.

Some Problem

Baby Elaine Athans gives Maurice Fitzgerald, New York City official, the bare facts on how cut in fuel oil rationing for diaper services is affecting her life.

"Flying Boxcar" at It Again

Fresh from air freighting assignments on the Alaska road and later on the vast Shipshaw development in Quebec, Canadian Pacific Air Lines CF-ARM, widely known as the "Flying Boxcar" is now moving a 50-ton mill and other equipment from Kenora, Ont., into an important Cobalt property on Werner Lake, about 50 miles north of the Ontario city. In above photos, CF-ARM is shown at Kenora ready to take off on another trip into Werner Lake. At lower left, a 1700-pound horse, trussed and doped, is loaded into the capacious cabin for the flight to the mine. Lower right, a 2700-pound boiler is put aboard, just another of the "Flying Boxcar's" strange cargoes. Since cobalt is used in the making of tool steel, opening up of the Werner Lake property is another important development in Canada's war effort.

Worth Fighting For

Sergeant Major Marydeth Cox, 21, pretty Northwestern University co-ed, gives a snappy salute to soldiers of Fort Sheridan, Ill., after they had chosen her their "girl most worth fighting for." Marydeth's title is purely honorary.

No Lavender?

Susan Hayward of the films looks trim in this swim suit trimmed with lace-of-the-shoe-string variety.

Latest Wartime Information Board poster release in the "Men of Valor" series is shown above. It is based on an excerpt from the citation which accompanied the award of the Victoria Cross to Lt. Col. C. C. I. Merritt, Canadian hero of Dieppe.

Glider Girl

By OREN ARNOLD

HOPE
CHAPTER XXII
ED BRYAN, pilot friend of Jimmy Carr and Jimmie, came to Pat on the quiet this morning about 10 o'clock.
"Pat, Pat," said he, "I'm a little worried."
"Are you, Ed? Why?"
"Well, you know how it is. When it's going to be one of those big storms, everything's quiet and then for several hours just preceding."
"Oh... I see... Yes, Ed, it is pretty still. I haven't seen in the weather office so far today what the barometer reading is, but anyway I think so."
"I wasn't talking about the weather," Ed said.
"I may or may not storm, for the glider train fleet. But I was talking about that Stuart dame."
"Oh, I see. Ed, has she acted up again?" Pat was mildly alarmed.
"No, she hasn't. That's just the trouble. I worry about her being so quiet."
"But—maybe she's just ashamed of herself."
Ed snorted. "Hush!"
"Maybe we helped her see it our way, Jimmy's way. I mean it."
"I been sticking close to her, under cover like. She stands around and smokes and stares off at nothing too much. It ain't healthy. For us."
"Er, be nice to her. Invite her to lunch, and invite me and Jimmie too. Will you? We got out of all the reception committee duties, because we're planning the air train. But Jimmy and I have to eat somewhere."
"You figure if she's with company she'll behave better?" Ed asked.
"Yes! Wouldn't you mope, Jim, just left alone? If you were in"

Pat, a feller doing that learns to treat himself pretty good."
"Behave people's eyes!"
"He was rocking on his heels now, a little. Now you take you—come right out and tell me what you're going to tell. And I suspect that, I'll hold it back between us, see. But the question he isn't like you."
"How do you mean?"
"Jim—well, he's honest as he can be. Oh, honest. Sure he is. Here as honest with everybody that it's sometimes hard to live with everybody, that it, but himself."
"Ed, what do you mean?"
"Ed asked bravely. "Now you take a feller like him—he gets into a fix in a fix, and being an Army captain, and he's got to force his personal life down, means. He don't give it enough thought. He figures everything centres around getting this war."
"Well—well, of course, Ed."
"Yes. But you know one thing? If I was you I wouldn't give up."
"The big man and the small girl looked at each other intently for several seconds. Finally Pat felt his chin begin to tremble, and a mistiness came into her eyes."
"Ed turned away, almost self-consciously. "I'll go on home and Miss Stuart and meet you here by tomorrow," he said.
"Pat watched him go. He walked heavily. There was something solid and friendly and good about Ed Bryan. He held an odd sort of wisdom, she knew."
"Maybe I ought to listen to him!" something sang within her. "Maybe Jimmy and I—Jimmy and I—maybe Jimmy really could be made."

Elmer Roper Warns Against Substitute Social Scheme For Stable Economic Plan

The Canadian people should not permit themselves to be persuaded to accept any kind of a social security scheme as a substitute for a national economy that would provide full employment for all who are able to work, Elmer E. Roper, M.L.A., C.C.F. provincial leader, told members of the Alberta Pensioners Society on Monday night.

City Visitor

H. Traversa Coleman, of the public relations department, C.P.A. Line, who is a city visitor, left his way back to Winnipeg after visiting the Pacific coast.

Spring Supplies Rushed to North

Spring supplies are being rushed northward by air at an increased tempo to beat the spring break-up on northern rivers and lakes, air line officials said here yesterday. Canadian Pacific Airlines regular flights of four planes, carrying a total of 32 passengers and 2,500 pounds of mail, express and baggage left Edmonton yesterday for the Mackenzie river district.

One official just returned from a trip north said northern Indians predict a late ice break-up this year, but supplies are being sent north in an increasing flood to get them in ahead of the break-up deadline.

With wartime emergency of network of airports in the north country, only a few of the northland rivers and lakes are to be planned as landing places for the planes.

Flooded Basements From Spring Thaw

Flooded basements, plugged sewers and catch basins, and overflowing ditches have kept workmen of the city engineer's department busy during the last few days, it was stated Tuesday by department officials.

Many calls have been received by the department and the trouble is being rectified as quickly as possible, but difficulty in obtaining men is militating against the clean-up work. An official stated that the 40 men employed on spring flood work have to labor until nearly midnight to keep up with complaint calls.

Six steam boilers from the department used for thawing out drains clogged with ice and slush.

A health plan to provide medical and hospital services to those who need them, invalid allowances to those prevented from working by ill-health, allowances to widowed mothers to enable them to keep their families in comfort and health, were also included in Mr. Roper's plan of post-war reconstruction.

AUTHORITY DIVIDED

Authority and powers necessary to plan for post-war reconstruction are divided between the Dominion and the provinces, the speaker said. He said that there should be a Dominion-provincial conference held after the present session of parliament to discuss the setting up of a technical board to investigate and report on projects which may be undertaken to provide social-useful employment, financial and other resources to be available in connection with such projects, changes in the B.N.A. Act which may be necessary for the carrying out of national post-war development.

Planning for peace is just as definitely required as it has been necessary to plan technically for war, Mr. Roper declared, and the government is working against isolationism. The problems of peace can no more be effectively dealt with in four different states than the war activities could have been, with Bandmaster Sgt. W. Johnson of the Australia Salvation Army assisting. Mrs. B. Roberts acted separately to provide the nation's war needs, he said.

A resolution of the board of directors of the Alberta Pensioners' Society was submitted to the public meeting Monday, was unanimously endorsed and copies were ordered to be sent to Prime Minister Mackenzie King and the minister of pensions, also to federal city members, the Honorable James A. MacKinnon and Mrs. Cora Casselman.

PROPOSED CHANGES

The changes of the Act included the lowering of ages for men from 70 to 65 years, for women from 70 to 60 years, the increase of old age pension from $20 to $30 a month, providing premium for those who have worked retirement beyond the eligible age, providing widows' pensions on the same basis as old-age pensions. Funeral expenses up to $100.

The Salvation Army band, under the leadership of Mr. Wm. Gibson, took part in a musical program in the community singing, a brass band, and a marriage license and a birth certificate.

Gathered over the last month, spectacles, tools, purses of all sizes, coats and military scarves, coats, watches, neckties, brooches, underwear, overalls, a windbreaker and a raincoat.

Women auto buses, quilt, ladies' blouses, gloves, bicycle seats and bicycle generators, auto jacks and have been working full time for the past few days.

There have been no complaints of major flood conditions in any particular section of the city.
